ABCMouse.com was started by Age of Learning, Inc. as part of a global education plan. Our goal is to help kids build a strong, successful future by providing comprehensive and fun lessons online. This program will greatly help early learners to succeed in pre-k, kindergarten and early elementary school programs.

ABCMouse.com is developed specifically to help young children fully understand basics in reading, math, beginning science, social studies, art and music. The website offers educational content that has never been seen on one location on the internet before.

From ABC's and 123's to Thank You and Please, ABCmouse.com is “Bringing Learning to Life” by offering more than 2,000 learning activities, such as: online books, games, songs, puzzles, art activities and activities to print.

ABCMouse.com is subscription-based, with no advertising, pop-up ads or links to other sites. Children can learn and explore in a safe and secure online educational environment.
