

Ernst & Young is a global leader in assurance, tax, transaction and advisory services. As a global professional services firm, our 141,000 people from 140 countries help companies track and report their financial performance, internal processes and systems.

Our people serve clients from startups to multinationals in every industry. They work together to interpret and provide context to financial and nonfinancial information, as well as to provide strategic and critical thinking.

Accounting is not simply about bookkeeping and crunching numbers. People who build their career at Ernst & Young wear many different hats and have many career opportunities available to them. They have access to the development and knowledge resources needed to be successful in all aspects of their lives — both personally and professionally.

At Ernst & Young, we are united by our shared values and high standards of integrity, quality and professionalism, and we're committed to making a difference by helping our people, clients and wider communities achieve their potential. Corporate responsibility is integral to our business strategy, our values and our day-to-day operations. It's how we understand our impact on the world around us and the sum total of our actions.

We recognize the importance of combining our energy and enthusiasm with our professional skills to have a positive impact on businesses and markets, as well as on society.

To learn more, visit www.ey.com.

Did you know?

- A degree in accounting can lead to many career paths (public accounting, corporate/industry accounting, business entrepreneur, government, non-profit organization, teaching, etc.).
- Ernst & Young employs 650 people in the state of Florida and has offices in Boca Raton, Jacksonville, Miami, Orlando and Tampa.
- FORTUNE magazine has named Ernst & Young to its “100 Best Companies to Work For®” list for 13 consecutive years.
- Ernst & Young has sponsored Cyberchase, the leading PBS children’s television program since 2007, reaching more than 4 million students every week and helping them build their math skills.
- Ernst & Young is working closely with the Startup America Partnership, the private-sector alliance launched at the White House, to accelerate the growth of entrepreneurial companies.