JA World Uncorked! II
presented by Southern Wine & Spirits of Florida

THE CIRCLE OF WISE WOMEN
BENEFITTING JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF SOUTH FLORIDA

JA World Uncorked! II presented by Southern Wine & Spirits of Florida

Saturday, January 21, 2012 | 6:30pm at JA World | 1130 Coconut Creek Blvd, Coconut Creek, FL

This Circle of Wise Women Signature Event combines food, wine and amazing desserts in a swanky, speakeasy-themed setting. Chaired by Kit Schulman, this second-annual event benefits the educational programs at Junior Achievement.

From 6:30 to 10:30 pm, guests will stroll through JA World enjoying tantalizing bites, delicious wines and decadent desserts from a multitude of local restaurants and international wineries. South Florida's favorite chefs will whip up culinary creations in signature cooking demonstrations, and the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale's culinary students will compete for a coveted scholarship in the Cotton Club Bakery Competition presented by Go Riverwalk Magazine and sponsor Diâne Johnson. Guests will vote on their favorite restaurants to award Uncorked!'s best bites of the night and bid on fabulous auction items. Dance the night away to the dynamic sounds of The Edge Band, lounge in VIP Hideaways and other surprises await in Finance Park. It will be the bee's knees!

The Circle of Wise Women at JA South Florida is excited to announce partnerships with Publix Apron's Cooking School and The International Culinary Schools of the Art Institutes, with Resident Chef Bil Mitchell and Chef Director John "Jack" Kane serving as valuable additions to the JA team. Signature chefs include Marc Gruverman from the Capital Grille, Dominic Falcione from Mojo and Wes Bonner from Publix Apron's Cooking school in Boca Raton.

Honorary Chairs for the event are Stacie Weisman and JoLynn Lombardi, JAWorld Uncorked! Inaugural Chairs, and Lorraine Thomas, our "MVM" (Most Valuable Moll) returning as Capone's Hideaway sponsor. Our signature sponsors ($10,000 and up) are listed below.

Circle of Wise Women

Founded in 2009, our core belief is that "Wise Women Can Change Education". We believe that Junior Achievement programs are the springboard to show children their potential for success. The Circle of Wise Women is a group of educational advocates who believe they can affect positive changes in students' attitudes, performance, and their future outlook. Wise Women understand the need to transform how students view the world of work, personal finance, free enterprise and their own potential for success. They are committed to helping provide the resources necessary for Junior Achievement to offer their full range of programs which impart sound economic principles to youth K-12. Wise Women participate in hands-on activities, provide financial support and forge new partnerships for JA in the communities in which they live and work. For more information on the Circle of Wise Women or membership information, call (954) 979-7120.

Junior Achievement highlights the value of the free enterprise system, teaching business know-how and personal finance. We do that through proven, structured, hands-on programs for all students, Kindergarten through 12th grade. The relevancy of JA's programs reinforces the learning process, encourages self-esteem, and increases the potential for our students' future success! Junior Achievement of South Florida offers two programs, JA BizTown and JA Finance Park. The Falcone Family BizTown and The Dave and Lorraine Thomas BizTown serves 5th graders, and The Patten Family Foundation Finance Park serves 8th graders. JA programs are significantly transforming how every local student views the world of work, free enterprise, and their possibilities for success in it.
