TD Charitable Foundation Supports Junior Achievement of South Florida

September, 2011 – Coconut Creek, FL – TD Bank, through the TD Charitable Foundation, recently donated a total of $7,500 to Junior Achievement of South Florida in Broward County as part of the bank's commitment to giving back to the community.

Junior Achievement (JA) programs will reach over 48,000 students spanning grades K-12. Using age-appropriate curricula designed to teach elementary students about their roles as individuals, workers, and consumers and to prepare middle grade and high school students for key economic and workforce issues they will face. Junior Achievement brings the free enterprise system to life in the classroom and at JA World Huizenga Center through two new hands-on learning programs, JA BizTown and JA Finance Park, geared towards 5th and 8th graders.

Junior Achievement will use the funds from the TD Charitable Foundation to fund the high school program, Personal Finance.

Melissa Aiello, President of JA, said "Our partnership with the TD Bank Charitable Foundation is a perfect fit because our goals are similar, as we both strive to help students learn about the need to own their future financial success."

A staunch commitment to active involvement in the local community is a vital element of the TD Bank philosophy. TD Bank, America's Most Convenient Bank[®] and the TD Charitable Foundation provide financial and other support to affordable housing initiatives, financial literacy and education and the environment, many of which focus on improving the welfare of children and families.
